Acknowledgments

This book was written by Center for Children's Advocacy attorneys Stacey Violante Cote, Esq., MSW, Director of the Teen Legal Advocacy Clinic; Sarah Healy Eagan, Esq., Director of the Child Abuse Project; Emily Breon, Esq., MSW, former Staff Attorney, TeamChild Juvenile Justice Project; and Martha Stone, Esq., Executive Director.

The Center for Children's Advocacy is a private, non-profit, public interest organization dedicated to protecting and promoting the legal rights of disadvantaged children. Staff provide legal representation to children and youth who are falling through the cracks of the child welfare, health, mental health, educational, and juvenile justice systems. Based in Hartford, Connecticut, CCA is affiliated with the University of Connecticut School of Law and operates satellite offices at Saint Francis Hospital, Connecticut Children's Medical Center, The Hospital of Central Connecticut, Harding High School in Bridgeport, and other community-based sites.
